

Hollywood visits Milford For The Harriet Wilson 150th Anniversary Celebration

Born in Portland, Maine, Victoria Rowell made her acting debut in the Cosby show and was a long time star of the daytime drama The Young and the Restless. Rowell has been featured in many films including Eve's Bayou, Distinguished Gentleman and Home of the Brave.

Her book The Women Who Raised Me, and her documentary The Mentor, was inspired by her time spent in foster care in Maine. She is a recipient of the United Nations Association Award, for her work in education, foster care, human rights and world peace.

Join us for A Guided Bus Tour
of Harriet Wilson's Hometown
A Keynote Address & Book Signing
Featuring
Hollywood Actress, Author & Activist

VICTORIA ROWELL

& music by
Rock My Soul Gospel Choir

Saturday, November 14, 2009

Milford Town Hall

One Union Square, Milford, NH

Keynote Address & Book Signing, 2 –4pm

Guided Bus Tour, 11 am –1 pm

Tour Cost— $10.00

Register at <http://hwpbustour.eventbrite.com>

or call 603-862-0693

All other events are free and open to the public

Event Sponsored by:

Black Heritage Partnerships at the University of New Hampshire,
The Center for New England Culture, The Center for the Humanities, Women's Studies, The Office of Multicultural Students Affairs, Wadleigh Memorial Library, Milford Historical Society, Maine Freedom Trails, The Portsmouth Black Heritage Trail and The Harriet Wilson Project